ASTOUNDING DISCOVERY AS TO PARK COLLEGE STUDENTS.

ALLOWANCE

SYNOD DISCUSSED THE CHARGES YESTERDAY.

Decided That Students Who Are Guilty of Such Practices at Denominational School Should Be Disciplined.

The Presbyterian synod of Missouri declared unofficially yesterday that students of Park college, in particular, or any other college, who spent their allowance from the church on cigars, cigarettes or theater tickets should be disciplined. Officially the synod expunged from the records all references to the matter, which came up in the form of a report from the board of education, and occasioned the most spirited discussion of the day.

Last night there was a joint meeting of the synoid and the women's society. Mrs. L. K. Richardson spoke on the subject. "Retrospect and Prospect," and Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, of New York, delivered an address. He furnished some interesting in-

He was surprised to hear that the students of Park college used tobacco or attended the theater, and declared that if the matter were brought to the attention of the board, such students would be dropped. At this point several wished to speak at once. Some thought it an outrage to instinuate that the use of tobacco or theatergoing were general among the students. Others thought that examples should be made of students resorting to such vile practices. Dr. Beiden arose to pour oil on the troubled waters. He thought that it was inexpedient to press the matter; that it would be placing a stigma upon the

it would be placing a stigma upon the students who received the munificent sum of $60 u year from the board. He thought it a discrimination not to allow them to do what other students could allow them to do what other students could do, and he asked that the recommendation be withdrawn. Dr. F. L. Ferguson, of St. Louis, was of the same opinion. "We don't want the people throughout the state to think that we are educating theatergoers for the ministry," he said. He thought the young men of Park college were very ex-empiary in their habits. empiary in their habits.

"Only two minutes more," said Mod-erator Miller. erator Miller.

A motion to strike out that part of the report was put and Dr. Miller declared it carried. Several delegates clamored for a rising vote, but the motion to strike out all reference to tobacco users and theater-goers carried—38 to 22.

Routine Business.

The synod began its second session yesterday morning with devotional exerces led by Dr. Henry Bullard, of St. Joseph. The by Dr. Henry Bullard, of St. Joseph. The most important report of the morning dealt with the question of teaching the Bible in the schools. Dr. S. J. Niccolls read the report of the committee on "Care for Presbyterian Students at the State University."

Dr. Niccolls said that there was no infidelity taught at Columbia, nor would there be. Nevertheless, the Bible was prohibited by the constitution from being taught there, and for that reason something should be done for the students, among whom are a great many Presbyterians. The several Presbyterian bodies in the state were asked to co-operate in the establishment of this Bible school.

Rev. Dr. B. L. Agnew, of Philadelphia, corresponding secretary of the board of ministerial relief, addresse the synod in behalf of the board. This board, he said might well be called the pension bureau of the church, caring for indigent ministers in their old age and for the widows and orphans of deceased pastors.

Dr. F. L. Ferguson, of St. Louis, and Dr. H. D. Jenkins spoke on educational subjects.

Afternoon Session. At the afternoon session, Rev. Dr. J. G. Reaser, of St. Charles, read the report of the committee on schools and colleges. They were all in a flourishing condition, he said. The report recommended the Linderwood college for young women to the heard of aid for a temporary loan of $1,600. This was also adopted by the synod. Rev. Dr. H. D. Jenkins, in a short address, made an appeal to the synod in behalf of the board of aid. All the colleges dress, made an appeal to the synod in be-half of the board of aid. All the colleges were endeavoring to counteract and turn back this sentiment, which emanated from a foreign source.

When Dr. Jenkins concluded, the synod gave him a standing vote of approbation. Rev. Mr. Cleland B. McAfee, of Parkville, read the report of the committee on foreign missions. He thought that Missouri was not coming up with its quota of contributions. The membership of the Presbyterian church in the United States last year was 55,8%, he said. The total gift for foreign missions was $49,4%, or is cents per member. The membership in Missouri was 21,5%, while the total gift was $12,6%, or only is cents per member.

"Word From the Board" was the subject of Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown's address. He is secretary of the board of foreign missions and came from New York to tell of its work. He congratulated the Missouri synod on the fact that it has as many representatives in the foreign field as has any other synod in the church.

Rev. Dr. Harry Omar Scott, of Carthage, told how the dobt was paid and Rev. Dr. John F. Hendy, of Jefferson City, spoke of the future of missions. Rev. Dr. J. B. Hill presented the report of the committee on synodical history. foreign source. When Dr. Jenkins concluded, the synod

The Women's Synodical Missionary Society met in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church yesterday. The morning meeting was opened with devotional services led by Mrs. J. T. Boyer, of Osceola. Mrs. E. M. Wright welcomed the delegates and Mrs. L. Knight, of St. Louis, delivered the president's address. Miss L. Truesdell, of St. Louis, spoke on the subject. "Our Mother Board." Mrs. F. Wygal, of Springfield, read a paper on "What Shall I Render Unto the Lord for All His Benefits Toward Me?" Miss C. B. Hastings, of Parkville, read messages from the missionary workers will attach to the meeting from the fact that the missionary work in each country considered will be discussed by prominent women who know the stituation from personal experience and observation. ## INTERESTING SESSIONS.

Methodist Institute Listens to Papers by E. A. Northrup, Dr. J. W. Hancher and Others.

At the morning session of the Methodist institute yesterday, papers upon "A Liv-ing Secrifice." "Constant as Against Special Revival" and the "Relation of Early Piety to Higher Education" were read by E. A. Northrup, Dr. J. Q. A. Motter and Dr. J. W. Hancher, Dr. Hancher touched E. A. Northrup, Dr. J. Q. A. Motter and Dr. J. W. Hancher. Dr. Hancher touched upon the causes that make such men as Jesse James, Sr., with a pussing allusion to his son.

In the afternoon, "Signs of Promise" were discussed in a paper by Rev. Mr. W. C. Coleman, Rev. Dr. V. C. Evers mentioned the Epworth League, the Junior League and the Laddes' Ald Society as some of the auxiliaries to revival work. "When you send your mothers after mothers, business men after business men, and the young people after their own kind," he said, "then you have your whole church in working order and may expect telling results." In place of Rev. Mr. I. F. Roach's sermon upon "Christ the Soul Winner," Rev. Dr. W. P. George gave a "Birdseye View of the Bible."

It is hoped that the next quadrennial conference of the Methodist church, which will occur in May of 150, will be held in Kansas City. To make this a possibility, however, it will be necessary to raise 30,00, as 1,000 ministers from all over the country and beyond will have to be entertained here for thirty Gays.

When the loan was made the cattle which were mortgaged as security were enttered in various pastures in Elk county, sentered in various pastures in Eik county, Kas., and the commission company sent a representative with Walker, who saw and took descriptions of them. The prosecution claims to have proof that these cattle did not all belong to the mortgagee, and also that many of them were driven from pasture to pasture, and by changing the brands were used in securing loans from other live stock companies. One loan was for about $6,000, made to Adelina Elliott by Mergan, Snyder & Buell, who took a mortgage upon 20 of the cattle for security. Another loan of $7,000 is said to have been secured from Campbell, Hunt & Adams on 310 head of the same cattle. Besides this alleged remortgaging, the prosecution claims that many of the cattle were shipped out of the state of Kansas, mostly to St. Louis.
